Creating New Accounts on Aeries' Parent/Student Portal

Please Note: You do not need to set up a new account every year. If you already have one, continue to use that username and password.

Parents/guardians or Students with VPC, ID number and home telephone information (you can obtain this information from your school office) in hand can go to the Parent/Student Portal website below and select the Create New Account link. This will take you through the Registration Process.
